General

REALLY?! Is this IT? Is this how we are "supposed" to look. I'm not trying to ruffle feathers, I just was incredibly disturbed by this photo among many others of the same nature. People (not just women/girls) are sick with this disease(anorexia nervosa). It's sad b/c people pick one another apart, till someone falls off the edge, and the problem that you will run into there is the fact that it is hard to recover...if one can recover at all. Just wanted to leave a post-it note in your head. Kinda hard to look at, huh?

I am wired in a very unique manner. I've learned to embrace the fact that I have a few screws loose.

I don't eat meat.All except for fish.I love sushi.

I was wondering if it would be possible if all promotional or comments that look like SPAM not be allowed. I'm sure like me and her friends would like to leave a comment on her page but wouldn't want my comment next to someone inviting her to a event at a club or a band wanting her to hear their song. If it's not possible, I completely understand. -Nune
